REFLECTIVE READING GROUPS

Journal clubs are educational meetings where individuals meet regularly to critically evaluate recent articles in healthcare literature. They have often been cited as a bridge between research and practice, as they encourage reflection, discussion and the application of research in clinical practice.

The Library & Knowledge Service can help you to set up and facilitate a regular Journal Club. Journal clubs are both participatory and reflective in nature so can provide you with excellent CPD evidence.

Get in touch with us to find out more.

CPD OPPORTUNITIES

We provide training sessions on information search techniques so that you can develop the skills to find the evidence for yourself. These are participatory sessions and a certificate of attendance is provided for each 1hr session attended.

These sessions will support you in meeting some of the requirements for revalidation CPD activities specific to the NMC "The Code" 6.1, 6.2 and 22.3

- Using NICE Evidence Search: An Introduction
- Effective Literature Searching: Using Healthcare Databases
- Finding the Best Evidence: Systematic Reviews and the Cochrane Collection

Royal Marsden 9th Edition Available Online

In the busy world of clinical practice it can be challenging to find time to search for the evidence and this is where The Royal Marsden Manual of Clinical Nursing Procedures is a real practical help. The Manual includes over 350 evidence-based clinical procedures related to every aspect of care, from hand washing to cardiopulmonary resuscitation.
