Once you are logged in you can search their five ebook collections, create your own bookshelf, bookmark pages and even print sections within allowable limits – for example:

The screenshot shows a digital library interface. At the top, there is a search bar with the text "Search The Art and Science of Mental Health Nursing". Below the search bar, a "Print" dialog box is open. The dialog box has a title "Print" and a close button (X). Inside the dialog, there is a message: "You're allowed to print up to 513 pages of this book, you have 513 pages remaining. Once you click print, your allowance will be updated." Below this message, there is a section titled "Pages to Print:" with two radio button options: "Current Page" (which is selected) and "Pages From To". At the bottom of the dialog, there are "Cancel" and "PRINT" buttons. The background of the screenshot shows a bookshelf with two main categories: "1 Mental health" and "2 Mental disorder". The "1 Mental health" category includes sub-items like "Introduction", "A framework for mental health", "The nature of mental health", "Integral mental health", "Implications for nursing", "Conclusion", "Further resources", and "References". The "2 Mental disorder" category includes "Introduction", "Explanatory models of mental", and "Integrating models of mental". On the right side of the screenshot, there is a table of contents with items like "Cover", "Title Page", "Copyright Page", "Praise for This Book", "Epilogue", "Brief Table of Contents", "Detailed Table of Contents", "Contributors", and "Preface". At the bottom right of the screenshot, there is a "Go to" field showing "0 of 668".
