

You may have seen our notices that the national HDAS platform which we used to undertake literature searches was switched off on 31st March. From 1st April we now have to access various bibliographic databases via the providers' websites. Please be aware that requests for literature searches will be delayed as we familiarise ourselves with the new interfaces so please allow extra time when making requests.

Training material on the new platforms is currently being designed and will be made available soon. If you have questions please contact the Library Team: academic.library@lscft.nhs.uk. Further updates on this change-over will be published on the library blog and on our Twitter feed.

RESOURCE OF THE MONTH LIBRARY BLOG

We use our blog to support evidence-based practice, connecting you with high quality information to assist you in providing the best possible practice at LSCFT.

Our library blog is updated daily with current research and evidence along with updates from the Library team and the Trust.

How do I...?

Access the new CPD e-Learning Hub?

On 1st April The Royal College of Psychiatry's CPD Online moved to a new platform and is now known as the e-Learning Hub. If you are an approved user of CPD Online the new platform may be accessed here or via OpenAthens.

Please email the library team if you need help with access or if you have any questions:

Lunch and Learn

Thanks to all who attended our March session - mental health for new parents. Please leave us any feedback by completing our short survey.

• SHARING KNOWLEDGE • LUNCH AND LEARN

Want to share something?

We need your help!

We are currently looking for speakers to add to our Lunch and Learn programme. We would love to hear from you if you have anything you would like to share with other staff in one of our friendly and informal Teams sessions.

Your presentation does not need to be work-related, just something that you are passionate about and that you think will appeal to other staff in the Trust.

If you would like to be involved please email details to Katie Roper, Outreach Librarian: Katie.Roper@lscft.nhs.uk.
